Exhausting fellow men

Unemployment

- Rely on the Lord with all your heart
- Proverbs 3:5a
- Look at the birds! They sow nothing, they reap nothing, and they gather no provisions. Your Father in heaven provides for them. Don't you think that you are much more important to him? And even if you worry so much, you cannot prolong your life for a moment. Why do you worry so much about your clothes? Look at the lilies blooming in the meadows! They do not toil and cannot spin or weave. I tell you, even King Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as splendidly as one of them. If God makes even the flowers grow so beautifully, which are in the meadow today but will be burned tomorrow, will He not take care of you all the more? Do you trust God so little? So do not worry and ask, 'Will we have enough to eat? And what will we drink? What shall we wear?'
